

LOTUS 1976

Peace College Raleigh, N.C.

This is the book of Peace.
This is the book of our individuality.
This is LOTUS 1976.

INDIVIDUALITY

Like the pine trees lining the winding road,
I've got a name . . .
I've got a name.
Like the singing bird and the
croaking toad,
I've got a name.
And I carry it with me like my Daddy did,
Living the dreams that he kept hid.

Movin' me down the highway,
Rollin' me down the highway, Movin' ahead so life won't pass me by.

... and I want to go there free—
Like a fool I am and I'll always be.
They can change their minds
but they can't change me.
I've got a dream.

SIA

I know I could share it
if you want me to.
If you're goin' my way,
I'll go with you.
—Jim Croce

I've got a name ...

PEACE!

US

MOVIN' IN

silence ... empty rooms ... nervous journeys ... overstuffed, packed-down station wagons ... trunks, stereos, suitcases ... unpacking ... total exhaustion ... tearfilled goodbyes ... time to settle down in "peace" ...

SETTLIN' DOWN

"work to do" ... sweet dreams ...
"ROSES! For me?" ... Hey! Let's play spades ... picnicin' ... hangin' ten ... lookin' so fine ... 999 zillion calories?! ...
livin' in "peace" ...

PSGA

A person can never really know what Peace is about until she has made it a part of her life. Through our Student Government Association every student is given the opportunity to get involved and show an interest in the development of activities here on campus. Peace College is something different to every student she enrolls. These two years are unique and memorable for the young lady who elects to become a part of our "Peace College family" and reap the benefits of participation and cooperation in the PSGA.

Seated—Elizabeth Barnhardt, Tina Powell, Mary Evelyn Sale, Carol Shelton, Gibbs Chadwick, Pres., Rose Young, Lisa Barnett. Standing—Liz Thurston, Ellen Hawley, Faye Young, Martha Jayne Cameron, Meg Revelle, Lynn Fontaine, Betty Hoover, Sec., Linda Essa, Val Herring, Vice-Pres.

PSCA

You can get as much out of life as you dare to. Dare to make a friend . . . You did at the Little Sister—Big Sister cookout and during Peanut Week. Dare to share . . . you did at the rap and tutor sessions. Dare to love . . . you did when you gave that little extra time to listen to me when I needed someone. Dare to give of yourself . . . you did on the volunteer program, at Thanksgiving and at Christmas. Dare to smile and to laugh . . . you did and it made things easier. Be unique and natural—be yourself . . . you were and I was blessed. Dare to accept and believe and then . . . thank God for your friends—your sisters at Peace.

Judiciary Board

President—Lynn Fontaine

As students enrolled at Peace College, we are all familiar with the fact that our honor system is based upon the Honor Code and the Campus Code. These two essential codes, working together, help to maintain the feeling of trust and honesty within our small Peace community. The responsibility of upholding this Honor system is placed not on any one group but on each of us as individuals.

Meg Reville, Gibbs Chadwick, Miss Janice Edwards, Lynn Fontaine, Martha Jayne Cameron, Ellen Hawley, Jane Bailey, Linda Munsey, Dolly Ervin

PSRA

Susan Johnson, Jill Fowler, Becky Sautter, Kaye Young, Faye Young, Ellen Hawley.

President—Ellen Hawley

Each of you at Peace is a member of the PSRA, and the association depends on all of your support in intramurals and activities such as Powder Puff Football and Play Day. Even if you are not a great athlete, there is closeness, sportsmanship, and just plain enjoyment in getting together with friends.

The Recreation Association plays a major part in Peace life, and the atmosphere of our campus is shown through its activities.

Residents

Hall Chairmen take on ever so many different shapes during the year. At the beginning we are hostesses, public relations people and not completely trusted! As the year moves on and the new girls get to know us better, we become advisers, information centers, and occasionally, disciplinarians. Things continue to progress and so do our roles. By now we have become weekly nuisances, information centers (still), and friends. That's right—finally they accept us as friends first and hall chairmen second. Looking back, I can remember thinking of my hall chairman as some kind of official ("big dog"); it took me a while to realize that she was just another girl, just another friend.

Carol Shelton—Resident Chairman

Non-Residents

Living in the Rec Rom—Watching “All My Children” and “The Young and The Restless” . . . eating lunch at Newtons and Hardees . . . staying wet on rainy days . . . hunting for a parking place when you are late for an assembly . . . wearing dresses all day Wednesday because of Chapel . . . getting up at 6:30 a.m. to meet your 8:15 . . . driving home after it starts getting dark in the bumper-to-bumper 5:00 traffic . . . Who are we? We are the Non-Residents. We may not experience dorm life, but we, too, make lasting friendships, have good times, and most of all, find comfort in our Rec Room World.

Sharing ideas . . . building friendships . . .
working together . . . expressing ourselves as individuals . . . These are characteristics of the Dance Club. While an unknowing Peace College goes about their normal Wednesday evening activities, a group of students, under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Wescott, exercise, discover new techniques, experiment with different dances, and prepare for performances. We learn to be graceful, to be creative, to communicate . . . and to dance.

Girls Enjoy Easy Living in Ross Annex, Blount House

Ross Annex, after being vacant for a year, is again housing Peace students.

By Teri Beacham and Lisa Van Meter Seniority houses at Peace? Not exactly, but two additional housing units are now on Peace Campus this year. Ross Annex and Blount House, two buildings a "vacant" for over two years, are fortunate enough to get a new lease on life. We have accepted that building and have adjusted. Together we have learned respect for each other and for these colleges which give us a strong sense of school spirit. Earlier in the year a few girls were asked if they were given special honor. Ross Annex refused. The girls were given a special honor. The girls were given a special honor. The girls were given a special honor.

A PLAYER'S PRAYER

I don't want to be a whimperer, Lord or a quitter when the game gets rough
 I don't want to be a slacker, Lord
 When the playing's hard and the going's tough

I don't want to be a cheater, Lord or a loafer when the pressure's light
 I don't want to be a winner, Lord
 if I can't do the winning right.

I don't want to play for glory, Lord or retaliate for unfair play
 I want to play it fair and clean, Lord
 All the time and all the way

I don't want to be an alibier, Lord or justify myself when I'm wrong
 I only want to play it fair and clean, Lord and in Thy strength alone, be strong.

MISS PEACE 1976

Miss Martha Jayne Cameron

Martha Jayne Cameron is truly a unique person . . . she is friendly, kind, generous, enthusiastic . . . WONDERFUL. Whenever anyone needs an encouraging word, a smile, or even a shoulder to cry on, Martha Jayne is there . . . ready and willing to help. She has carried many responsibilities this year, and through each of them, she has touched more people's lives and has brought sunshine into what may have seemed to be a drab day. Martha Jayne will stand out in our memories of Peace College because she has been a true friend to all of us. I feel very lucky to have been her roommate . . . my life at Peace would not have been half as exciting without her. Martha Jayne, Peace College loves you . . . and I do, too!!

A Note

You know, it really is difficult to put Peace College into words . . . to place it on paper . . . to show our life here through photographs. Yes, Peace College is more than just another school; for two special years it is our world, our home, our life. And despite graduation, we never really separate, for our memories will always hold dear those INDIVIDUALS who have left their prints on our lives.

We realize that there are many things that we have overlooked, many aspects of Peace life that we have failed to capture. But it is our hope that Lotus 1976 may always remind you of the time we have shared.

There are many individuals to whom we owe a special thanks—to the entire Lotus staff, Beck-isue Brown for extra hours, Dru Hood for her generosity in the typing department, to the Faculty and Administration for their patience when we interrupted them for photos, Mrs. Mary Jo Cashion and Fred Jones for their photography, and particularly Mrs. Janet Wester, our advisor and friend, without whom this book could never become reality.

This book is from us . . . with love . . . to you. So now we present to you . . . your 1976 Lotus.

Recommended thermostat settings (78° in summer, 68° in winter), proper insulation and equipment maintenance help you get the most for the money you spend for electricity.

Electricity does cost more today, so it makes good sense to use it wisely.
